

EMORY Department of Gynecology
UNIVERSITY and Obstetrics
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

The Department of Gynecology and Obstetrics is seeking a fellowship trained pediatric adolescent gynecologist committed to an academic career in pediatric and adolescent gynecology.

Pediatric and Adolescent Gynecology at CHOA/Emory is a busy clinical practice with a great array of clinical exposure, involvement in collaborative care, connections to high-level academic endeavors and opportunities in medical education. Our clinical and academic space is located in a beautiful new building that is housed directly across the street from the brand-new Arthur M Blank Pediatric Hospital set to open in 2025. We are currently involved in several multidisciplinary clinics including Pelvic and Anorectal Care Program, Differences in Sex Development, and Turner Clinic. We look forward to expanding collaboration with both Pediatric Hematology and Oncology, including solidifying involvement in the Oncofertility Program.

Duties and Responsibilities:

Responsibilities include research as well as teaching medical students, residents, and fellows in the diagnosis and treatment of female adolescent reproductive health concerns.

Primary responsibilities include:

- Service to Emory University and Children's Healthcare of Atlanta in areas of patient care, teaching, and research appropriate to their professional training and capabilities and their career goals.
- Faculty members are expected to supervise mid-level providers assigned to the clinical practice location.
- Faculty are expected to timely complete all required reports including faculty time records, dictation, encounter form completion and medical records documentation.

Faculty Members are also expected to demonstrate outstanding activity in the teaching aspects of the Department. Specifically, this would include:

- Providing teaching instruction and supervision to residents and medical students in pediatric and adolescent gynecology.
- Providing lectures to fellows, residents and medical students as requested.
- Attending Grand Rounds, M&M Conferences, Journal Club, Division meetings and other Departmental activities.
- Participating in mentorship of medical students, residents and fellows.
- Participating in fellow and resident interviews.
- There also would be a certain amount of administrative and committee work that faculty members are looked upon to contribute.

Academic rank to be determined commensurate with experience.

Qualifications:

Qualified candidates must have a terminal degree (MD or DO), successfully completed a 4-year ACGME-accredited obstetrics and gynecology residency program, and a 1 to 2-year North American Society for Pediatric and Adolescent Gynecology (NASPAG) recognized Pediatric Adolescent Gynecology Fellowship and be Board Eligible or Board Certified in obstetrics and gynecology. Licensure by the Georgia Composite Medical Board will be required prior to commencement of employment.

Qualified candidates should submit a letter of interest, CV, and names of three references through the Emory Career's website at <https://ecpi-emory.icims.com/jobs/83215/job>.

Faculty Appointment will be in the Department of Gynecology and Obstetrics. Employment will be in the Emory + Children's Pediatric Institute.

The Emory + Children's Pediatric Institute is an affiliation between Emory University and Children's Healthcare of Atlanta that is improving the lives of children in Georgia and beyond. The Pediatric Institute combines the unique strengths and resources of each institution in support of our three-part academic missions of providing outstanding clinical care, conducting innovative basic science discovery and clinical research, and coordinating exceptional education of the future healthcare workforce. Our physicians, researchers, and educators have created a model where leadership, commitment and quality are fundamental components of success. Together, we are transforming pediatrics by achieving new levels of clinical excellence—driven by research, teaching and wellness. We look forward to our future together.

To ensure the safety of our campus community, the COVID-19 vaccine is required. For more information on the University and Hospital policies and potential exemptions, please see our website.
