

The Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology seeks faculty candidates in the area of general obstetrics and gynecology and/or obstetric hospitalist. Successful applicants will hold an MD/DO or equivalent degree, be qualified to obtain Oklahoma licensure, and be eligible for credentialing under OU Health Physicians as well as area medical facilities. Physician applicants must be American Board Certified or Board Eligible in Obstetrics and Gynecology and have successfully completed an ACGME-accredited OB/GYN residency training program. School of Community Medicine faculty are appointed through the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine with academic rank based on qualifications. Various administrative positions may be available based on qualifications and program needs.

Primary responsibilities will include patient care, resident and student teaching, and participation in scholarly activity. The ideal candidate will be a developing leader with interest in and a passion for clinical medicine, research, and teaching. Positions are available for general OBGYN physicians to develop a clinical practice and/or serve as a hospitalist. The successful candidate will find an environment of high clinical excellence, collaboration within and across specialties, and high academic achievement. Academic rank will be based on qualifications. A competitive salary and an excellent benefits package are offered. You can read more information about the School of Community Medicine at <https://bit.ly/ouscm>.

Position Highlights:

- Competitive salary
- 6 weeks of paid vacation
- Relocation assistance may be available
- Excellent benefits and Retirement plan

The School of Community Medicine (SCM) is an integrated track within the University of Oklahoma, College of Medicine, located on the OU-Tulsa campus. In addition to a 4-year medical student program, the SCM has 7 residency programs, 4 fellowships, and a physician assistant program. The OU Health Physicians multi-specialty practice offers a full range of care through inpatient and outpatient settings. You can learn more about our OBGYN specific programs at OU-Tulsa Department of OBGYN.

Tulsa is situated in northeast Oklahoma, a beautiful region of the state known as Green Country. The metropolitan area boasts a low cost of living as well as a lively music scene, world-renowned art museums, ballet, outstanding entertainment venues. Tulsa is also home to USA Today's Best City Park, a unique recreation area known as the Gathering Place, located along the Arkansas River.

Interested applicants should apply online at: SCM Faculty Openings

EEO Statement

The University, in compliance with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, genetic information, gender identity/expression (consistent with applicable law), age (40 or older), religion, disability, political beliefs, or status as a veteran in any of its policies, practices, or procedures. This includes, but is not limited to admissions, employment, housing, financial aid, and educational services.

Why You Belong at the University of Oklahoma

The University of Oklahoma values our community's unique talents, perspectives, and experiences. At OU, we aspire to harness our innovation, creativity, and collaboration for the advancement of people everywhere. You Belong Here!

Mission of the University of Oklahoma

The mission of the University of Oklahoma is to provide the best possible educational experience for our students through excellence in teaching, research and creative activity, and service to the state and society.